

THE ETHICAL TRAIT OF CARING

Webster's Dictionary: feeling interest or concern; having a likeness or fondness,

Here's what caring means to the Rotary Club of Albuquerque:

As Rotarians we are concerned about the well being of our fellow club members and of all with whom we interact on a daily basis. We seek to build good will and international friendships by applying the Four Way Test to our daily activities. We are known for our practice of "Service above Self."
